Brown

Mary Brown who came from Massachusetts married Daniel Walker. They lived on a farm in Missouri. While there her daughter married Gus Snider. He (Snider) lived with the old folks & sold the farm and bought the farm where Fred Snider lived (Got 12 in 11th Cone?) She died there when J. L. Percy lived on Shibly Place & when Uncle Herb was about 4 yrs old. She must have been 80 or more. She was a great smoker nearly all her life but quit 4 months before she died. She weaned Grandma Percy who remembers a big fireplace & curtained bed. Buttermilk pop was used in weaning. It would seem that she died about 1876 or 7 & was born about 1795-1805.

There seems to be some doubt according to notes as to whether her name was Brown or Deacock.
